

ANNOTATION

During the course of practice, i became acquainted with the directions of activity of LLC «Building comfort service»:

Designing, designing and installing modern home automation systems and intelligent systems for commercial and industrial objects: home theaters with professional sound and video, intelligent lighting control, automatic heating control and warm floors, intercoms, security, fire and engineering alarms and much more;

Installed the server cabinet and mounted server and control and measuring equipment, created software and made a test run of the monitoring and accounting system for electricity and water supply.