

During my practical course i got acquainted with the work of DP “Ukrmetrteststandart”. There was an introduction to the products, namely: electricity meters, frequency meters, pressure measuring devices, and so on.

After determining the theme of the diploma project, I conducted an analysis of the types of pressure measurement devices. Also, a study of analogues of devices manufactured in Ukraine was conducted using the library at the factory.